

Tadeusz Jarmuziewicz

Born on 21 September 1957 in Piława Górna.

Education:

1977–1982 Higher School of Engineering in Opole, Faculty of Electrical Engineering.

Political and Professional Experience:

1985 – 1997 – his own enterprise – weak current devices, equipment for intelligent buildings;

1992 – 1994 – President of the Liberal Democratic Congress in Opole;

1994 – 1998 – Vice-President of the Freedom Union in Opole, Member of the Board;

1994 – 1997 – Alderman in Opole, Chairman of the Public Security Commission;

1996 – 1997 – Vice-President of the Board of Economic Chamber in Opole;

1997 – 2001 – Member of Parliament in the Sejm of the 3rd term of office;

2001 – co-founder of the Civic Platform in the Opole area;

2001 – 2005 – Member of Parliament in the Sejm of the 4th term of office;

2002 – 2005 – Chairman of the Parliamentary Committee for Information Society;

2001 – Vice-President of the Civic Platform in the Opole area;

2005 – 2007 – Member of Parliament in the Sejm of the 5th term of office; Chairman of the Infrastructure Commission; Chairman of the Standing Sub-Commission on Aviation and Maritime Economy; Spokesman on Infrastructure in the Shadow Cabinet of the Civic Platform;

Awarded for his work on infrastructure;

2007 – Secretary of State in the Ministry of Infrastructure;

Member of Parliament in the Sejm of the 6th term of office.

Married, one child.

Hobbies:

Marathon races – took part in 31 biggest Marathon races in Europe; initiator of World Marathon Championship for Parliamentarians (4 editions so far), travelling, ski running, cycling, chess.