

Piotr Styczeń

Born in Gorzów Wielkopolski (1956); graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Szczecin and State Vocational School of Higher Education in Gorzów Wielkopolski.

Since 1992 professionally involved with cooperative housing; since 1999 President of the Executive Board of Housing Cooperative "Włókno" in Gorzów Wielkopolski; Director of Pomeranian Gravel Mines in 1998-1999; since 2001 also President of the Executive Board of the Foundation for State Vocational School of Higher Education in Gorzów Wielkopolski.

Professional licence for property administrator, lecturer of property administration, especially housing supplies of housing cooperatives and communities, and also implementation of contemporary methods of receipts and costs administration in housing economy.

Also a consultant for drafting housing strategies and professional standards in property administration.

Involved in drafting housing strategy – „Gorzów 2001+” and in 2003 for Poznań – standards and principles in property administration for the Executive Board of Council Flat Supplies.

Hobbies: computer science in administration, and music – especially jazz.